Daniel Prays

Even though Daniel was a big leader in the Babylonian Kingdom, he never stopped worshipping the one, true God. Daniel prayed at his window three times a day, giving thanks to his God. When a new king came to power, men who were jealous of Daniel's position convinced the king to issue a decree that anyone caught praying to any God or man other than the King would be thrown into the lion's den. Then, of course, they went to Daniel's window and waited to catch him praying to the God of Israel……

Try this grace at dinner tonight!
Dear God: I am so thankful that You love and care for me. Thank You for helping me through every trial and problem. Please help me to be faithful to You, no matter what comes my way. In Jesus' name, Amen

Closing Prayer:

May God guide my feet today,

Grant kindness to each word I say.

Bless my mind, my heart, my hands

To do this day what God commands.

Daniel in the Lion's Den

The King was so sad when he heard that Daniel had broken the decree because he knew he had to throw him to the hungry lions—it was his decree, after all. He said to Daniel: "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!"

The king did not sleep, but ran to the den at first light. There he found Daniel safe and sound! The Living God, the God of Israel had protected him! An angel had shut the mouths of the lions! The king was overjoyed! What a story!! Daniel always followed God's ways and lived according to God's principles.
