The Book of Esther

Esther, Esther fair of face,
God chose her to save her race.

“Your name”, “Your name”

God’s child too.

What will God choose you to do?

Try this grace at dinner tonight!

Dear God: I am so thankful that You love and care for me. Thank You for helping me through every trial and problem. Please help me to be faithful to You, no matter what comes my way. In Jesus' name, Amen

Closing Prayer:

May God guide my feet today,

Grant kindness to each word I say.

Bless my mind, my heart, my hands

To do this day what God commands.

Esther the Brave!

Many returned to Jerusalem in Judah after the Babylonian captivity, but many stayed put in Babylon and Persia. Esther and her Uncle Mordecai, who looked after her, were among those who stayed. The King of Persia, Xerxes (pronounced Zerksees), banished his wife one day and called for all the beautiful women in the kingdom to be brought to his palace. He chose Esther to be his new queen. How do think Esther felt about that?! Her Uncle Mordecai had warned her not to tell anyone that she was a Jew. Now she was the queen of Persia with a big secret. Find out next week how God used Esther to save her people...
